

Project: Christmas Parade
Champion: Matt Eberz

Project Summary: to develop a float for the Christmas parade that provides both enjoyment for the children attending the parade and also make a lasting impression on the adults attending.

2007 Parade:

- The “float” was simple, had no particular theme, carried snowmen
- The board members walked in the parade dresses as characters from children books.
- Candy and books (500) were given out to the children
- Costs: The cost of the float lumber and books were donated. All those marching in costume purchased their own costumes.
